

The Rover P5 Club (Northern) National Rally

SUNDAY 21 AUGUST • YORKSHIRE AIR MUSEUM, ELVINGTON AIRFIELD, YORK YO41 4AU

The museum plays host to an eclectic collection of aircraft covering many generations in particularly homage to the Free French squadrons and aircrew of RAF Bomber Command who, in WWII, flew from Elvington and other bases around York. The pride of the YAM collection is the superb hybrid reproduction Handley Page Halifax, representing the type flown by the French aircrew.

The P5 Club Northern Rally will be held within the museum grounds so, once admitted and parked up, you can enjoy both the rally and the museum during the day without having to really leave the rally area at all.

Please note: YAM have advised vehicle access to the rally site will close at 10am for general visitor safety.

There is a picnic area and restaurant (NAAFI) within the museum grounds. Breakfast is served from 10-11.30am. If you are thinking of having a breakfast on the day, please indicate on the rally entrance form where requested. This is a non-binding indication and just for catering guidance only.

We are trying to make application to the Northern a paperless process, as cashing cheques costs money (and this is a Yorkshire doo!). Thus, completion of application forms and payment electronically would be greatly appreciated.

As for the Southern National, there will be no advertised hotel or Saturday Night meal/social, we just look forward to seeing you all on the Sunday. Remember, if you want to overnight/weekend, there is a fantastic selection of Hotels in the York area and the city is only 20-30 minute drive to the museum.

Further details regarding general rally timings, prizes and all the other usual rally stuff will be published later and full details will be included in your rally entrance pack.

The rally is being run by the Yorkshire Rover Club, arranged by Ken Pick: email: onepick@outlook.com and ably assisted by David Battye, our YRC Mr Fixit, email: davidhbattye@btinternet.com should you need any further assistance. Indeed, early contact would be welcomed, particularly if you want an early copy of the entrance form!

The entry fee for the P5 Northern will be £10, which covers rally entry and museum entry for the driver, additional passengers will be charged £7 per head (added to your entry remittance, see rally application form).

Your museum entry is valid for 12 months so, any return to the museum during that time will be free!
